

- 1. Training for combat and disaster – a Swedish perspective; e-learning
Linda Sonesson and Per Örtenwall (Sweden)
- 2. The twin attacks in Norway – challenges and lessons learned
Jørgen Joakim Jørgensen (Norway)
- 3. Association between knee joint pain and its function and the level of D vitamin in conscripts of the Estonian Defence Forces
Leho Rips (Estonia)
- 4. Physical and mental workload interaction in conscripts of the Estonian Defence Forces
Vahur Ööpik (Estonia)
- 5. Prehospital neck/spinal immobilization
Triinu Keskpäik (Estonia)
- 6. War medicine training to Ukrainian medics
Indrek Olveti (Estonia)
- 7. New resuscitation guidelines
Veronika Reinhard (Estonia)
- 8. Motivation of recruits during soldier's basic course in Latvia
Anita Codere (Psychologist, Latvian National Armed Forces)
- 9. What is happening to Estonian men?
Merike Sisask (Estonian-Swedish Mental Health and Suicidology Institute)
- 10. Application of motivational interviewing in the Estonian Defence Forces
Inga Karton and Marge Sillaste (Estonia)
- 11. Tactical Combat Casualty Care (TCCC) – from theory to practical improvement
Salvijus Milasius (Lithuania)
- 12. Critical Incident Stress Debriefing in the Lithuanian Armed Forces: Lessons Learned
Andrius Jurgaitis and Danute Lapenaite (Lithuania)
- 13. How to use Individual Psychology in soldiers' consultations
Giedre Ambrulaitiene and Rosita Kanapeckaitė (Lithuania)
- 14. Helicopter medevac during the war in Eastern Ukraine, 2014-2015
Tetyana Potupalova
- 15. Supporting military operations of the Estonian Defence Forces
Harri Ints (Estonia)