

CONTRIBUTORS AND EDITORS

Dr Arthur Eyffinger is classicist and (legal) historian and former staff member of the Grotius Institute of the Royal Dutch Academy of Arts and Sciences, former Chief Librarian of the International Court of Justice and former Deputy Director of the Peace Palace Library, The Hague.

Erkki Holmila is a doctoral candidate at the University of Helsinki, Finland, and a practicing attorney.

Dr Rain Liivoja is a Research Fellow and Project Director for the Law of Armed Conflict at the Asia-Pacific Centre for Military Law, Melbourne Law School, and an Affiliated Research Fellow of the Erik Castrén Institute of International Law and Human Rights, University of Helsinki. He is a former board member of the Martens Society and sometime Visiting Lecturer in International Law at the Estonian National Defence College.

Martin Arpo is Head of Bureau in the Estonian Security Police. A graduate of the University of Tartu, he was an investigator of international crimes in 2000–2004.

Erki Kodar is the Director of the Legal Department of the Estonian Ministry of Defence. He is a doctoral candidate at the Faculty of Law of the University of Tartu, where he teaches International Humanitarian Law. His research interests are law of armed conflict, use of force and legal regulation of cyber security.

Annika Talmar-Pere is a doctoral candidate at the University of Tartu and a researcher at the Estonian Academy of Security Sciences. She is also a member of the board of the Martens Society.

Dr iur René Värk is Associate Professor of Constitutional and International Law at the Estonian National Defence College, Assistant Professor of International Law at the University of Tartu, and Legal Adviser (reserve) to the 1st Estonian Infantry Brigade.

MTh Andres Saumets is Associate Professor of Social Science at the Estonian National Defence College and Associate Professor of Church History at the Theological Seminary of Tartu.